Educational Scholarship and Grant Criteria

Educational Scholarships

- The Trust provides educational scholarships to encourage and up skill Nga Hapu members in tertiary education with special emphasis in (but not limited to) the area of natural resource management.
- All applications must be made in writing through the correct application form (see the Trust website or talk to the Trust Secretary) and all required information must be provided. The application must be returned on time and any applications received after the closing date will not be accepted for that funding round.
- The scholarships are for tertiary study at a New Zealand University, New Zealand Polytechnic, or other recognised New Zealand tertiary institution.
- An annual scholarship for students studying in the area of natural resource management (Geology, Earth Sciences, Engineering and Environmental) has been specified within the consent conditions.
- In the event of there being no applicants studying in the area of natural resource management (Geology, Earth Sciences, Engineering, Environmental) those funds will be held and accumulate until applications are received from students following those studies.

General Educational Grants

The trustees may allocate additional funding to general educational grants to encourage and up skill Nga Hapu members in other tertiary education. These scholarships will fund students of Nga Hapu descent in any field of study that may ultimately have a long term downstream benefit to tangata whenua.

- Downstream benefits to tangata whenua would include, but not be limited to, applicants studying in the areas of Education, Te Reo, Medicine, Social Services, Commerce or Business.
- The Trust can allocate grants of between $250 to $1500 to an applicant studying full-time or part-time towards a University degree or tertiary diploma. The studies must have some long term downstream benefit to the hapu or tangata whenua as a whole.
- All applications must include the following:
 - Evidence of achievement/results from previous years study
 - Confirmation that the applicant is actually attending the course in the form of a copy of the fees receipt or a letter of acceptance of enrolment as student at a recognised tertiary institution
 - Confirmation of Whakapapa to the relevant hapu.
